After a Volunteer Application form has been returned to Solve Disability Solutions, it will be assessed and you will be contacted and advised if you have been selected for an interview or if your application was unsuccessful.

National Police Records Check

Following the interview, if found suitable for the role a National Police Records Check is required. Solve Disability Solutions will ask you to complete the relevant form, you will be required to supply suitable identification for a 100 point check. Solve Disability Solutions will process the check through an on line service- CrimCheck. Results will be sent directly to Solve Disability Solutions with no cost to the volunteer. Check results are confidential and must be renewed every 5 years.

Working with Children Check (WWC)

Technical volunteers and Freedom Wheels (Clinic) volunteers are required to apply for a Working with Children Check. You will be advised to do this once the interview has taken place and you are found suitable for the role. These checks are administered by the Department of Justice and processed through Australia Post outlets (free of charge for volunteers). You can apply on line or obtain a paper based application form from a participating Australia Post outlet. Click here for information about the Working With Children Check or to apply on line.

*When completing the application, for Question 11, of the WWC check the code is 38.
